DISCIPLESHIP

Elementary Chapel

Our chapel speaker this week was Pastor Manny Rosario from Journey Church. He spoke to us about games, and how they can remind us of God. The game of Hide and Seek shows that God is always seeking us. He used the stories of Jonah and Adam and Eve to show us just how much God pursues us - even when we hide from Him. Also, just like in the game of Uno, we will always have the One! In everything we do, He is the One. We should be just as enthusiastic about sharing God! The game of Tag points us to God. God has tagged us, and we are "it". It's now our turn to go and "tag" others to tell them about Jesus. He closed by sharing how we can remember God with the letters of the word PLAY. We should always:

Pursue God
Love Others
Accept Grace
You - Be Yourself

Middle and High School Chapel

Today, we had an exciting chapel! Our Senior Class took the lead, not only in praise and worship, but also with the message. Our seniors followed the theme of the school year and shared their stories. They shared how situations in their lives took them down difficult roads, and how the Gospel not only brought them out of their brokenness, but how it is still transforming their lives to this day! The seniors concluded with these words of encouragement, "We all have stories of brokenness. The only way out of this brokenness is through the Gospel of Jesus Christ!" Great job Class of 2018!

GUIDANCE

AP testing begins next week! Please be in prayer for our students taking their AP Physics, U.S. History, Economics, and Literature exams!
